

STAR

(Sit Together and Read)

This is a two part virtual series presented by SST Consultant, Debbie Nagel, M.A. which focuses on interactive and innovative read aloud practices involving both teachers and caregivers.

February 19, 2021

1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Part 1: STAR in the Classroom

STAR in the Classroom focuses on classroom practices around read alouds and print awareness.

After this session participants will use read alouds for the purpose of advancing emergent literacy skills in all students using the strategies modeled throughout the PD session.

March 12, 2021

1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Part 2: STAR at Home

STAR at Home will focus on bringing effective read aloud practices into the home and provides a clear communication line between the classroom and home around proven literacy strategies.

After this session participants will engage caregivers to use the strategies that are modeled on the STAR cards. They will create a feedback loop between the classroom and the home by using a STAR journal. This will allow the teachers and caregivers to provide specific supports, report on accomplishments, and ask questions.

Registration

Participants must register for each session they want to attend individually. Each day has its own registration and different log in link (See blue link after the date(s) below). Once you have registered you will receive a confirmation email with the information to log on to that days meeting. For registration questions contact Lisa Jenkins esclew_lj@sstr1.org. For questions on the content of the network, please contact Debbie Nagel at esclew_dn@sstr1.org.
